BRITISH STRIKE NEAR ARRAS FRENCH CONTINUE ADVANCE

YANKEE GUN CREW RESTING IN A CAMOUFLAGED POSITION

YANKEE GUN CREW RESTING. COMM. PUBLIC INFORMATION SUPPLIED HERE.
A Yankee sergeant and his gun crew taking a few minutes' rest after a long stretch of continuous firing on the German positions. The gunners are members of the 26th American Division which is holding an important section of the battle line in France.

32 YANKEE DIVISIONS IN BATTLE

General March Comments on Allied Successes of Past Month.

Battle Line Has Been Shortened More Than Fifty Miles.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, August 21.—As result of the allied successes the past month the battle front from Rheims to the North Sea has been reduced more than 50 miles. General March told newspaper men today in his mid-week conference.

When the Germans began their last advance the line stretched for 250 miles. It is now less than 200 miles.

General March enumerated 32 American divisions as having arrived in France among them the 37th Ohio National Guard division and the 83rd division trained at Camp Sherman.

The success of the enlarged American program of the War Department, General March said still is dependent upon acquisition of adequate shipping and while the Emergency Fleet Corporation is constantly swelling the tonnage at the army's disposal, it still is necessary to charter and hire many additional ships. Lacking details of the British drive reported in Associated Press dispatches today, General March declined to comment upon the new thrust.

He said, describing the period which had elapsed since his last talk, that the allies had continued their attacks on limited fronts and at widely separated points.

WOUNDED ARM

CAPT. ARCHIE ROOSEVELT

An exclusive photograph of Captain Archie Roosevelt taken during his period of convalescence in France showing his wounded arm. Captain Roosevelt the third son of ex-President Roosevelt, went to France as a second lieutenant. For marked bravery in action he was promoted to the rank of captain and was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the French. His wound was caused by shrapnel which fractured the bone of his left arm.

U BOAT SEIZES BIG TRAWLER

Believe Pirates Intended Using It as a Raider.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

An Atlantic Port, August 21.—A German submarine yesterday seized the big fishing trawler Triumph. The crew, who have reached shore safely, said they believed the Germans intend to use the trawler as a raider.

The fishermen reported that the U-boat is playing havoc with the fleet of fishing vessels on the Grand Banks.

YOUTH WILL BE NO BAR TO COMMISSION

The House Military Committee Reports Favorably on Man Power Bill.

Some Important Amendments Are Made.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, August 21.—A favorable report was voted by the House Military Committee today on the administration man-power bill with an amendment providing that youths from 18 to 29 years of age shall be placed in separate classifications, to be called into military service after men from 20 to 45.

Another amendment provides that the fact that a soldier has not reached 21 shall not bar him from a commission.

COLLEGE MEN

A section added at the request of the war department provides that men of draft age may be sent to colleges for technical training in uniform without changing their military status.

Chairman Dent presented his report immediately after the House convened and obtained unanimous consent to have it taken up tomorrow with right of way over all other business. He thinks it can be passed Friday.

RULERS AGREED STATES VIENNA

(Associated Press Cable)
London, August 21.—Vienna dispatches declare the recent conferences between Emperor William and Emperor Charles, resulted in agreement according to advices from the Hague.

It is said Germany appears to have reached an agreement with the provisional government of Poland over the head of Austria.

WHOLE GERMAN LINE DEMORALIZED AND ARMIES MUST CHOOSE BETWEEN CRUSHING DEFEAT AND RAPID RETREAT. ALL DEFENSIVE PLANS OF HUN GENERAL STAFF ARE COMPLETELY SHATTERED BY LATE TURN OF EVENTS AND SUCCESS OF EVERY ALLIED MOVEMENT.

MORALE OF GERMAN TROOPS DESTROYED RAPIDITY AND FORCE OF ALLIED ATTACKS HAS THROWN HUN FORCES INTO CONFUSION

Allied Aviators Make Big Bag of German Planes and Balloons. Depots and Ammunition Dumps Are Terrifically and Effectively Bombed by Allied Flyers, Who Drop Tons of Explosives on Great Naval Bases.

ALLIES PRESS FORWARD ON ALL FRONTS

(By The War Editor of The Associated Press)

British forces struck the Germans over a front of approximately ten miles, on the line southwest of Arras at dawn this morning.

According to details received from the scene of the new assault the British have advanced from two to three miles and have captured the towns of Moyenneville, Courcelles, Achiet-Le-Petit and Beaucourt-Sur-Ancre.

The assault was begun under cover of a mist which materially assisted the British in their advance. There was a brief artillery preparation and it would appear that the plan of attack was similar to that followed south of the Aisne July 18th, and north of Montdidier August 8th. A large number of tanks participated in the attack.

Unofficial dispatches appear to indicate that the British advance has carried the battle line to a point three miles from Bapaume, an important highway center and a place reported to be an important German base in the northern Picardy sector.

If the British drive continues to press the Germans back along the northern side of the Picardy salient the enemy's forces further south would appear to be in a serious position. They are at present holding back the French and British along a line west of and parallel to the Somme and north of that river they have been desperately resisting allied attacks as far north as Albert.

The new advance seems to have placed the northern section of the enemy front in great danger.

In the Flanders battle area the Germans also are under heavy pressure. The British official report states that during last night an attack was made from Festubert, just northwest of Lens, to the Lawer river, a distance of more than four miles. The town of La Touret, at about the middle of this line, has been captured. This marks an advance of a mile at this point.

GERMAN LINES NEAR SOISSONS ARE MENACED

British Strike on Northern Side of Lys Salient Capturing Important Ridge.

American Naval Aviators Carry Out Successful Raid on Ostend.

On the northern side of the Lys salient the British made a local attack over a mile front near Locre this morning. The important Dranoutre ridge has been taken from the enemy. Between the Aisne and the Oise French troops continued their advance this morning. The progress made there during the last few days seems to have placed in jeopardy the German lines east of Soissons and also about Noyon. According to the latest advices the French now are on the high ridges to the northwest of Soissons and have positions which overlook and virtually dominate the German positions along the Oise to the east of Noyon.

American naval aviators have carried out the first American aerial offensive against German submarine bases in Belgium. Ostend was bombed successfully on August 15th but details of the operation are lacking.

337 CASUALTIES IN TODAY'S LIST

Washington, D. C. August 21.—The two casualty lists made public today contain a total of 337 names, including seven Ohioans.

The casualty lists are divided as follows: Killed in action 56; missing in action 140; wounded severely 94; died of wounds 14; died of accident 2; wounded degree undetermined 20; died of disease 7.

The Ohioans include: John L. Carmean, Chillicothe, wounded degree undetermined; Lt. Fred W. Norton, Columbus, missing in action; Jack Payne, Charleston, wounded severely.

CONDUCTING TOUR OF "FLYING SCOUTS"

MAJ. CLAUDE K. RHINEHARDT

Major Claude K. Rhinehardt, commander of America's fighting aero unit at Mineola, L. I., is conducting an airplane tour through the Middle Western States for the Committee on Public Information. The tour is being made by a flying squadron of American and British aviators, and will serve to give the Westerners an insight on the modern flying employed by fighting aviators over the battlefield in France. Just before the squadron had reached Cincinnati the flight was marred by a fatal accident. Captain James Fitzmorris, of the British Royal Flying Corps, was killed when his motor suddenly stopped and his machine plunged to earth. Captain Fitzmorris served three years at the front and was credited with having downed twenty-nine German planes.

AMERICANS ARE ASSISTING RUSS

(Associated Press Cable)
Vladivostok, August 17.—According to the request of General Deitrichs the commander of the Czech-Slovak forces in Siberia, the head of the American forces recently landed here is dispatching a number of troops to occupy points along the railroad between this city and Nikol'sk, the junction point of the Trans-Siberian railway with the line running to Khabarovsk.

This will release several hundred Czech-Slovaks for service on the Ussuria line.

NOYON DOOMED

(By Associated Press Cable)
London, August 21.—(4:45 p. m.)—French troops advanced three miles today along the Oise and reached Sempigny, a mile from the outskirts of Noyon, according to reports from the battle front.

CONVERTED TRAWLER IS DESTROYING FISHERIES

Big Trawler Triumph Manned by Sixteen German U Boat Sailors Creating Havoc Off Nova Scotia.

Bent on Destroying the Fishing Fleets.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

A Canadian Atlantic Port, August 21.—The steam trawler Triumph fitted with two guns and wireless and manned by 15 Germans from the U-boat which captured her yesterday in raiding the fishing banks off the Nova Scotia coast. Crews of the schooners sunk by the Triumph have arrived here.

Vessels known to have been sunk by the converted raider are the Luna Saunders, the E. Platt Andrew and the Frances J. O'Hara.

Captain Bruce, master of the E. L. Platt Andrew said on his arrival here that his vessel was held up by the Triumph yesterday and he and his crew given ten minutes to leave the ship. The Germans then sank her. The raider then bore down upon the other vessels and sank them likewise. The dories carrying the crews of the three vessels reached here at ten o'clock today. The fishermen say that while making for this port they heard firing and believed other fishing vessels were sunk by the raider.

Captain Myrrie, master of the Triumph, who landed here with his men this morning said that he was told by the captain of the submarine that he was only one of six submarines operating on this coast.

"We intend to destroy the fishing fleets" the German commander is quoted as saying.

SWIFT BOATS OUT

Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, August 21.—Strong forces of swift naval patrol boats and destroyers sped today to North Atlantic fishing banks where the trawler Triumph captured yesterday by a German submarine and which armed and manned is reported raiding fishing fleets. Naval officers here think the capture of the Triumph or destruction by her crew is certain.

SPAIN TO USE GERMAN BOATS

New Wrinkle in Neutrality Game Injected by Dons Whose Vessels Have Been Sunk.

(Associated Press Cable)

Madrid, August 21.—Spain will utilize German vessels in Spanish ports in place of Spanish ships sunk, but will continue to observe neutrality.

This decision is announced in an official statement issued after a meeting of the cabinet at San Sebastian. The Spanish ambassador at Berlin has been instructed to inform the German government of this action.

TWO M COMPANY MEN ARE WOUNDED

Mr. and Mrs. John Clutter, of the Jamestown pike, have received a letter written for their son, Sgt. Paul Clutter, of M Company, in which it is stated that he is in a hospital once more, and that he hopes to be up in the near future. The fact that he could not write is taken to indicate that he was badly wounded. It is the second time he has been in a hospital from injuries, the other time he was gassed.

Mrs. J. W. Brannon also has received word from her son, Corporal Warren E. Brannon, of M Company, that he was wounded in action on July 31st. The extent of his injuries are not known.

PRESENT DAY WRITINGS ON WALL

Gene, August 15. — (Associated Press Correspondence) — The words "Long Live Wilson" and "Long Live Entente" were written on the walls of the meeting place of the Congress of Oppressed Nations which recently met at Prague. Although the police hastened to remove them, they reappeared as if by magic.

The extent to which the revolutionary ferment has increased in Austria-Hungary is shown by the text of the resolutions adopted by the Congress, copies of which have been received here. It is in the form of a proclamation and is said to be the first joint revolutionary proclamation ever issued in the dual monarchy.

NEARLY FORTY MEN STILL AVAILABLE

There are some 40 men available from the 1918 registration for the quotas assigned to Fayette county in September, and when the youths attaining 21 years of age since June 5, 1918 are registered Saturday of this week, the number of men available will be increased by some 25 at least. It is expected that the bulk of the men available will be called during September.

ANOTHER M COMPANY MEMBER IS WOUNDED

Private Geo. McMahon, of M Company, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McMahon, writing from a hospital in France, states that he was slightly wounded by shrapnel and expected to be out within a short time.

The letter was dated August 1st, and carried the declaration that "we have the hooches on the run."

ONLY ONE AFFIDAVIT NICHOLS RELEASED

William Nichols, arrested on a charge of being intoxicated, was fined $10 and the costs, amounting in all to over $16.

The Bainbridge man to whom Nichols is alleged to have given a worthless check in payment for auto hire, failed to file an affidavit against the man for the alleged offense of issuing a worthless check.

RAILWAY BOOSTS

London, August 12. — (Associated Press Correspondence) — An increase of $235,000,000 a year in wages and bonuses has been secured for railwaymen. The secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen says:

"Without once having to threaten or attempt a stoppage of work, we have succeeded in improving the conditions of our members at the same time keeping clearly in mind our great responsibility as a transport industry."

DRIVE IS ON FOR WAR STAMP SALE

The Fayette County War Work Council launched another drive on Wednesday morning, for the sale of War Savings Stamps, and the drive will continue until Thursday night, by which time it is expected that tens of thousands of dollars additional sales of stamps in Fayette county will be reported.

The drive is county-wide and will reach into every part of the city and county. Citizens in general are urged to buy as liberally as possible, remembering as they do so that the money must be raised with which to defeat the Huns once and for all, and that every man, woman and child in the land must work to win the war.

The stamps offer an ideal investment, paying liberal interest in return, so that it is no sacrifice to help Uncle Sam in this manner.

Don't wait for the workers to hunt you up, but hunt up the usual workers in the territory in which you live, is the admonition of the main committee.

Buy War Savings Stamps and help put a plaster over the Kaiser's eye!

THE NEW GERMAN WITHDRAWAL

Between the two arrows (marked 1) Field Marshal Haig reported that the Germans have withdrawn from their foremost positions. The depth of the withdrawal is not disclosed. At the south end of the Picardy battlefield the French have taken Ribecourt (2) and, roughly, the territory shaded. The heavy line is the front before the offensive of August 8.—The triangles indicate the front as it now is. The broken line represents the battle front before the spring operations started.

SMALL ARMY OF HELPERS ARE BUSY IN FRANCE

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Paris, August 15.—So great have been the war demands upon the diplomatic and consular services of the United States in France since America entered the conflict that the embassy has had nearly to multiply eight times its former strength in Paris and the consulates all over France have doubled their forces. In addition there have been established in Paris, either in the embassy or in close liaison with its branches of the War Trade Board, the Hoover Food Bureau and the Committee on Public Information.

The working force at the embassy before the war began was about 10, exclusive of secretaries and attaches. Today it is 80. About 70 clerks have had to be brought over from Washington to take care of the growing influx of work.

At the embassy in pre-war times there were two attaches—naval and military. Today the naval attaché has four aides and a clerical force of about 15 persons, while the military attaché is surrounded by five aides and from 15 to 18 clerical employees. In addition a new attaché's post has been created, that of scientific attaché, a post filled by Dr. Frederick Durand. He represents the Board of Inventions in France, and investigates all inventions in France that may be used in prosecuting the war successfully.

The establishment in Paris of a branch of the Bureau of Public Information is another event of recent occurrence. Headed by James Kerney, the board employs a staff of American and French newspapermen who are both gathering and disseminating information about events in France, and are making it daily clearer to the French public just what America is doing in the war. This bureau works in liaison with, and not directly under, the embassy.

The War Trade Board, Paris Branch, is another new feature. Headed by William McFadden with Clarence Stetson as assistant, the board here is incessantly active carrying out the directions of Vance Thompson, head of the parent board in Washington and in general looking after American trade interests in Europe.

Dr. E. Dana Durand, one-time chief of the census, is at the head of the Hoover Food Bureau that has recently been established here. This bureau follows ship movements, the food situation, gathers food statistics, and is responsible for the division of the food supplied to the allies. By keeping an intensive watch on the various food decrees promulgated by the French authorities it is able to advise accurately concerning the apportionment of food and the amounts to be sent each month.

A passport bureau or office after the British model has been installed at 63 Rue Pierre Charroux and to it were transferred the staffs of the Embassy and the Consulate that had formerly done passport work. There are over twenty clerks here today, under the direction of Lee Meriweather, assistant to Ambassador Sharp, Second Secretary Ben Thaw and Vice Consul Henry P. Elliott.

The expansion of the diplomatic activities is reflected in the physical extension of the Embassy quarters.

WITH FRIENDS

(American Press)

Washington, Aug. 21.—Lenine and Trotzky are on board a warship in the roadstead at Kronstadt under protection of the German flag and holding themselves ready to flee to Germany at the proper moment, Stockholm cables report. It is declared to be hardly likely that the Bolshevik chiefs will touch Russian soil again without the protection of a German military force. Stockholm advises that Petrograd is in the grip of a reign of terror. Reports are that more than 30,000 arrests have been made in the last month, most of the prisoners being officers of the former army and middle class citizens.

YANKS ARE VIEWING HISTORIC FRANCE AT ODD MOMENTS

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Headquarters American Troops With the British Forces in France, August 10.—American soldiers during their brief leisure moments, are wandering through ruins and over fields made familiar to students of history by centuries of wars and revolutions. Some of them have already fought on the scene of some of Napoleon's operations in the region of the Marne. Some are training over ground where Normans fought French and where the French fought the Spaniards. Later, they will, perhaps, be marching in line of battle over the country where the French and the Germans have fought again and again and where they will help the French and the British end the last of the wars to devastate the smiling valleys of France for centuries to come.

Nearly the entire history of France is pictured all over the areas occupied by the Americans in ancient churches which, along with object lessons in history will give the attentive soldier an enlarged appreciation of art and architecture.

Asked to what extent the men were profiting from these opportunities, an officer of the American forces said that after getting located the soldier takes the first opportunity to explore the neighborhood. To use one of the British terms that are taking root among the overseas men they "push off" into all the nooks and corners. If their conception of what they see are often vague at first they soon get the habit of observation which develops into taste and in a goodly number of cases becomes a study.

COLLEGE GIRLS MAKING GOOD

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., August 21.—No longer is the college girl a fluttering piece of femininity; she has budded into a serious young woman who is stepping rapidly into the places left vacant by men who have answered the country's call, according to Miss Anna O'Brien, in charge of the Girl Students' Employment Bureau at Ohio State university.

During the last school year, the bureau found employment for 65 girls; employment which enabled them to pay their own expenses through the entire school year. One hundred and four girls were given work on which they could partly support themselves. The work found for the girl students ranged from clerking in downtown stores to nursing and the preparing of private parties and banquets.

If They Are---

Officers of vessels attacked at sea by the German submarine raiders tell some marvelous tales to the officials at Washington about having seen the commanders of the submarines ashore in the United States mingling with the crowds in American coast cities.

Thus far officials are not placing their stamp of belief upon the tales, but are admitting the possibility of their truth.

If the U-boat commanders are taking chances like that their capture is only a matter of time. No Teuton who ever lived will be able to put that kind of a deal over on the alert Yankees and get away with it—that's certain.

In our thrilling tales of the old sea pirates of early days we have read of these marvelous exploits of daring by pirates, but that was a different day and those were different people. The world was a big place then and the sea was boundless, the means of communication were crude and slow. The transmission of messages carrying minute description of the pirates by the flash of electricity, to the most remote corners of the earth, to every port and to every officer, was unknown in those days.

Pirates of the sea could, even with the old sailing ship, beat the news of their desperate acts into port and journeying from port to port mingle freely with the crowds along the docks and in the grog shops of seaport cities. Now we have the telegraph, the telephone, the wireless and the United States secret service.

Perhaps, though, the Huns think they can improve on the exploits of Captain Kidd, making no allowance for changed conditions. That would be on a par with some of their other fiascos.

August Nights

The cool August evenings, nights and mornings have come. All the nice things we said about August giving us relief from the blistering heat of mid-day, with the cool refreshing periods between sunset and sunrise, we repeat.

August got off the track for about ten hot days and nights, but the grand old month is now back on schedule.

These cool nights stiffen up the energetic mosquito so that travel, in the night season, by that busy bird of prey, is impossible. If one doesn't arise too soon the mosquitoes can be seen coming to life in the warm rays of the morning sun, and we wonder where they have been all night long, while morpheus and tired out humanity have enjoyed each other's society.

We regret now, these glorious August mornings and evenings, that the taunt of friends and the torment of the weather forced from us an unwilling acknowledgement that old August had gone wrong.

We have the consolation, however, that this particular August, after all, and not ourselves, was to blame. We made the prophecy but August failed to live up to it.

Mobilizing

As one of the first steps in the new army program which is to place the nation on a one hundred per cent war basis, the United States Employment Service on Monday night issued an order transferring one million laborers from non-essential to essential war work.

Through the draft law extension amendments, the local board orders and the employment service the national authorities have concluded, practically, the taking of the labor census, and now that the work of mobilization is nearing the end, the new program of distribution of the labor supply becomes effective.

It will not be long until the labor conditions are as well in hand as the food supply.

The work of mobilization and distribution of the food supply has been one of the most remarkably successful and satisfactory, in its results, of all the tremendous work of war, the problem of mobilization and distribution of the coal supply is giving signs now of being measurably solved, and labor, thanks to intelligent and patriotic work of officials, labor leaders, employers and laborers themselves, is rapidly wheeling into the ranks on a real war basis.

These tremendous accomplishments are remarkable, of course, because of the completeness and the thoroughness with which they have been attained, but all the more remarkable is it all when we consider that what has been done is the result of intelligent and patriotic co-operation of the people of the nation.

The war lords of Germany thought it was impossible for people to do such tremendous things voluntarily. Our allies held their breath, figuratively speaking, while democracy was subjected to its first test. Democracy proved equal to every demand and amazed the world with its preliminary work, and the work has just commenced too.

Poetry For Today

ABSQUATULATION
 Would you know how the Huns are retreating
 In hot haste from the Allies in France,
 How a retrograde movement they're beating
 In a panic since Foch's advance?
 They absquatulate, lope and skedaddle,
 Give leg bail and scamper pellmell
 Beat it fast as they can in the saddle
 Flit and flee and keep running like hell.
 Away they are slinking and slipping;
 To the allies they are showing
 Their heels,
 They're decamping, levanting and skipping,
 With kamered bellows and squeals.
 "Sauve qui peut!" in their panic
 they're shrieking—
 But they yell it in German, of course
 As in terror they're sneaking and squeaking
 As they keep on their desperate course.
 They are cowering skulking and slinking,
 And they show the white feather,
 turn tail!
 Their courage out-oozing, they're shrinking,
 And they tremble and shiver and quail.
 All quivering, throbbing and shaking,
 Terror-stricken, they're running like mad,
 With flesh-creeping terror they're quaking,
 While they chatter and yelp,
 "Kamerad!"

INFLUENZA AMONG AMERICAN SAILORS

An Irish Port, August 15.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—The theory that the strange epidemic of a peculiar type of influenza which has swept Europe, attacked only those who were "run down" because of lack of proper food, was exploded when the disease threatened to take hold among officers and men at this American Destroyer Base. Aside from American soldiers, the American sailors are probably the best fed persons in Europe but the disease attacked several scores of them here and for a week or so disrupted crew assignments. It has virtually disappeared now.

The disease is not dangerous if taken in hand quickly enough and it has left no ill effects at the destroyer base. It has the peculiarity however of weakening the victim in a few days as much as the average flu does in twice the time consequently it requires several days of recuperation. Victims suffer differently when the disease first begins. Some suddenly become dizzy and even faint. The most prevalent symptoms however are first a cough, then terrific pains in the back followed by fever and a chill now and then. Physicians say it is dangerous to attempt to continue one's usual activities as pneumonia may develop and prescribe bed for four to seven days with ordinary remedies for combating fever.

POWER PLANTS TO BE TAKEN

Government Needs Power for Ship Building and War Industry.

Washington, August 21.—Serious interruption of ship building and other war industries by shortage of electric power is shown in reports by members of the House today in urging immediate action on the administration bill providing for government acquisition and construction of power plants.

NEW PRIORITY LISTS READY

Washington, August 21.—A new priority list of industries to receive coal transportation, labor, materials and financial assistance with provision for civilian needs is being compiled by the War Industries Board.
 It will be issued within ten days or two weeks. The list also will form the basis for operation of the work or fight order.

Use of Butter In Army.
 Washington, Aug. 21.—The American army is using 1,250,000 pounds of butter and 700,000 pounds of oleomargarine every month. A war department statement shows that soldiers stationed in this country have about five times more butter than oleomargarine, while in France the quantities of butter and oleomargarine are about equal, owing to the greater difficulty in obtaining high grade butter.

Disturbances in the Campaign Against High Rice Prices Have Brought Many Clashes.

(By Associated Press Cable)
 Tokyo, August 17.—Disturbances in the campaign against the high price of rice continue and there have been many clashes throughout Japan.
 According to the newspapers mobs varying from 500 to 10,000 have attacked and damaged rice stores, business houses and hotels. Mobs were dispersed in most cases by the police and military.
 Several members of mobs have been killed and many other civilians wounded.

BRAZIL GIVES SHIP TO U. S. FREE OF COST

Washington, August 21.—In commenting upon the shipping situation General March divulged for the first time that Brazil had given a ship to the United States without compensation of any sort for two trips. He said that, so far as he knew, this was the only case of its kind on record.
 In Flanders, he pointed out, the points of the salient which had existed there have been bent in by allied attacks southeast of Metz and near Meville. The apex was thus made unhealthy for the enemy and he was forced to withdraw from one to two miles on a 14 mile front.
 On the plains near the Oise the allied advance has put the line well back of the 1916-1917 line.

Social and Personal

Twenty-five neighbors and friends co-operated Wednesday evening in giving Mrs. Val McCoy a most delightful surprise at her country home in the Spring Grove neighborhood.

Mrs. McCoy spent the afternoon in town and was completely surprised upon returning home with Mr. McCoy to find the party grouped on the lawn, where a most tempting picnic supper was in readiness.

Mrs. Hays Dill and Miss Maggie Clemmens were the instigators of the successful affair. Participating in it were:

Mr. and Mrs. Hays Dill and son Howard; Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Parrett; Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Marshall; Mr. Roy Haglar and family; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howat, daughter Miss Jean; Miss Rose McLean; Mrs. Luella Herbert of Columbus; Misses Georgia Kirk, Mary Robinson and Carrie McCoy; Messrs. Howard Hagler and Arthur Staibus.

The M. H. G. Class complimented their popular president, Miss Esther Leland, by giving her a surprise birthday party, Wednesday evening.

It was an informal affair of the utmost pleasure. Mrs. Leland was in the confidence of the girls and served a dainty luncheon. Many pretty flowers were in evidence.

The merriment of the evening culminated when all the guests contributed to the birthday book.

Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington is in Rio Grande, Ohio, to attend the annual reunion of the Cherrington family. Rev. Cherrington is secretary of one branch of the Wm. Cherrington family.

The reunion will be held Thursday on the college campus at Rio Grande and nothing will be left undone which the committee can do to make the reunion an enjoyable and profitable event.

A special feature will be the dedication of a service flag, on which stars will be placed for all known persons connected with any branch of the family who have gone into the service.

Their original plans for a church wedding frustrated by the unexpected recall of the bridegroom to Ft. Thomas, Ky., Private Ralph C. Mayer and Miss Margaret Hughey Mark decided not to chance the bad luck of changing the wedding day and left on the early morning train Tuesday for Cincinnati where they obtained a marriage license and were wedded in Newport, Ky.

The bride's father, Mr. Fred M. Mark, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Frank Mayer, went down on a later train to be present at the ceremony, but found that owing to Pvt. Mayer's being compelled to report at Ft. Thomas the nuptial knot had been tied before their arrival.

Mrs. Mayer will remain in Newport, Ky., temporarily, but no farther plans can be made owing to the uncertainty of military conditions.

The best wishes of many friends of the bride and bridegroom await their return. Both are quite young, their courtship beginning in the High School, from which both graduated.

The bride, an exceptionally clever and versatile girl, completed her education at Mt. Ida College, Boston, Mass., the past year.

The bridegroom, a popular member of the younger set, gave up his earlier business plans to enlist in the service.

The last of the series of dances given by the Alpha Chi dancing club, for the benefit of the Red Cross, will be given Thursday evening, August twenty-ninth, at the K. of P. Castle.

Plans are being made to make this the last dance as elaborate and big a success as the Mid-Summer dance of August the fifteenth. Parker's orchestra will again furnish lively music for the dancers.

Nearly two hundred members of the M. P. Church at Jeffersonville motored to Snyder's Park at Springfield, Tuesday and enjoyed a delightful day's outing.

The picnic dinner was spread on long tables in the pavilion, and every effort was exerted by the committee to insure the comfort of the guests.

The "kiddies" enjoyed to the fullest extent the bathing pools, and large play ground games. Boating too had its share in the pleasure of the day.

Messrs. H. J. Smith, John Robbins, George Straley, Herbert Vannorsdall and C. D. Bush composed the committee.

Miss Dorothy Fullerton is entertaining Miss Gretchen Willis, guest, Miss Ruth Donovan of Boston and Mrs. John Galvin of Lima at Camp Sherman today.

A quiet wedding at the M. P. parsonage at half past nine o'clock Wednesday morning united two well known young people of the county, Miss Leona Eakins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Eakins, and Mr. Carey Henkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Henkle.

Rev. Lewis G. Ludwick performed the ceremony.

The bride, a very pretty girl of the brunette type, wore a tailored suit of blue serge, with hat to match. She carried bride's roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Henkle left immediately after the ceremony on a wedding trip.

Both bride and bridegroom have a wide acquaintance and a large number of friends, who are extending congratulations.

Mr. Henkle is one of the rural mail carriers and their future home will be made here.

Mr. Rankin Paul filled the role of promoter for an exceptionally jolly picnic at the Bryant-Sheets cottage on Paint creek Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Donovan, of Boston, Mass.

Eight couples of young people motored out, enjoying the beautiful moonlight night, the boating, big swings and all the resort attractions of this summer cottage and grounds. An elaborate picnic supper was not the least of the evenings joys.

Mr. Bert Harper has returned to his home in La Fontaine Ind., after attending to business interests here.

Mrs. George Kerr and little daughter Phyllis are spending a few days at Lilly Chapel.

Mrs. R. E. Powless and son Doane of Pemberville, Ohio are visiting with Mrs. N. D. Powless for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reid, daughter Miss Ruth, Mrs. Mary Patton and Miss Metha Patton are attending the Reid Reunion at Bookwalter today.

Mrs. P. P. Glass of Yellow Springs returned home Wednesday after spending the past few days with Mrs. A. Wood.

Misses Ruth Donahoe and Helen Bireley visited the latter's brother, Pvt. Clay Bireley at Camp Sherman this week.

Mrs. Laura Des Martin has received the sad word of the death of Mrs. R. E. Pryor of Cincinnati, the wife of Mrs. Des Martin's nephew. Funeral services were held Wednesday.

Mrs. Carrie B. Willis left Tuesday evening for Asheville, N. C. to spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Young and family.

Mr. J. Star Smith and daughter, Miss Dorothy of Bainbridge, Ohio, formerly of this city, left the last of the week for Washington, D. C., where both have accepted government positions. Mrs. Smith expects to join them later.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Brown and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, were guests at Maple Grove Springs Tuesday.

Miss Helen Glascock returned Tuesday evening from a visit with relatives in Chillicothe.

BEAUTIFUL SERVICES PRECEDE BURIAL

Most affecting were the simple services conducted by Rev. D. H. Rejy at the McNair Presbyterian church, Tuesday afternoon over all that was mortal of Joyce Truitt, the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Truitt.

There were few dry eyes in the large gathering of friends as they gazed at the beautiful child, surrounded by a wealth of flowers, and listened to the comforting words of the pastor and the plaintive music. Mrs. Carey Cripps, Miss Lillian Barnes and Mr. Dwight Ireland sang "When He Cometh" and "My Father Knows," and Mrs. Cripps sang with much tenderness, "A Little Pink Rose."

Four little girls, Pauline Denny, Cora Crispin, Goldie Mansfield and Naomi Campbell carried the flowers and acted as pallbearers. The flowers were in unusual quantity and from many friends.

Mrs. Juanita Meek and Miss Helen Ranhauser, of Columbus, were here for the services.

The burial was made in the Washington cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all friends and neighbors who rendered assistance during the illness and death of our darling little Joyce—to Rev. Rejy, the singers, undertaker Klever and for the lovely flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Truitt, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Ford, and family.

DEATH CLAIMS PATRICK J. BURKE AGED RESIDENT

Emigrated When But a Lad Six Years of Age From Ireland. Settled Here in 1850.

The announcement that Mr. Patrick J. Burke, well known monument dealer died at his home on W. Temple street, Wednesday morning at half past three o'clock, causes a shock in the community, of which he has been a part for over fifty years.

Mr. Burke was taken sick only last Sunday, a complication of troubles resulting fatally. He had been a man of unusual vitality, even the loss of his leg some years ago not hindering his active participation in business and community life. A familiar figure on Washington streets, always kindly and ready to give a helping hand, Mr. Burke's death will be learned with great regret by many friends and business acquaintances. Especially is his taking away, a shock to his devoted family—the wife and four children, John F. of this city; Mrs. Helen Bohn, of Chillicothe, Leo of London and Patricius, of this city, who survive a most affectionate father.

Patrick Burke was born in Tipperary, Ireland in 1842. When only six years of age, his father died, he accompanied his mother to this country. They came to Washington C. H. when the C. & M. V. Railway was built in 1850 and the young Patrick was water boy for the new railroad, his mother keeping a boarding house. They lived here ever since the completion of this railroad.

Mr. Burke learned the trade of stone cutter with Moses Gilmore and did a good deal of journeymen work on big lodges. Later he went into the monument business, in which he has been engaged for 50 years.

He was first located opposite the present engine house; then on East street for forty years and was succeeded by his son Patricius in the P. J. Burke, Jr., Monument Works located in the new Burke building on the corner of East and Fayette streets. For years Mr. Burke was the only stone cutter in the county and cut all the stone for a number of Washington's older buildings. He was a large property owner, investing all his money in city property residences and business buildings. Always patriotic, it was only the serious condition of his leg which prevented his enlistment in the Civil War. Later the leg had to be amputated.

The only organization to which Mr. Burke belonged was St. Coleman's church and in that edifice his funeral services will be held Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Burial will be made in the St. Coleman's cemetery.

22,750 POUNDS OF SUGAR ADDED TO FAYETTE QUOTA

Amount Will Be Apportioned in Ten-pound Lots for Canning Purposes Only and Certificates Are Now Ready for Persons Who Pledge Proper Use of the Supply.

Through the efforts of the Fayette County Food Administration, Fayette county has been allotted an additional 22,750 pounds of sugar this month, to be used only for canning purposes, and this will be apportioned in 10-pound lots to those who pledge themselves to use the sugar for home canning, and not for ordinary cooking or table use.

There are two ways of obtaining certificates.

BE A "REGULAR"

Some day we'll get your bundle, so don't wait to be "drafted" in the "service." Every busy housewife knows the difficulties of getting a reliable wash-woman. True there are plenty of good ones, but you can't always get them when you want them. Be a "regular" patron of Larrimer Service and you eliminate all wash day evils.

LARRIMER LAUNDRY

Both Phones. Motor Delivery.

The Local Food Administration has decided to give the certificates, in limited numbers, to retailers outside of this city, who will apportion them to the best of their judgment. In this city persons desiring sugar for canning may obtain the certificates by applying to the County Auditor's office, where Chairman Pine has consented to distribute them. Retailers outside of the city are to apply in person for the certificates.

The Administration will endeavor to make the most equitable distribution of the sugar possible, and persons with something like an adequate supply of sugar will be denied certificates. Retailers will be limited in the amount of sugar awarded under the certificates.

No retail dealer, it is understood, will be given certificates for more than 300 pounds until the first distribution of certificates is made, it is understood.

The certificates are now ready for distribution.

CRAP GAME GETS TWO INTO TROUBLE

Leonard Mabra and Jim Glovers, both colored and both residents of Jeffersonville, were fined $50 and the costs each and given 20 days in jail by the mayor of Jeffersonville, on charges of gambling, to-wit—shooting craps.

The pair was engaged in a crap game Tuesday night, it seems, and were doing splendidly until the division of the spoils came up, and then a row started. This revealed the nature of the sport in which the pair had been engaged, and arrests followed. Glovers was trailed to this city and Patrolman Bell picked him off the evening train and held him until the Marshal of Jeffersonville came after him.

HOW YANKS SPEND TIME IN AVIATION CAMP IN ENGLAND

(Associated Press Correspondence) An American Aerodrome in England, August 17. Life on active service with the Air Force in Great Britain is made up of a happy mixture of work and recreation which keep the American pilots in good health and spirits—both essential qualities for real success in the air.

There is usually time for indulging in many kinds of field sport, and the opportunity is seldom missed. American and British pilots always mix in their sports as in their work and there is much friendly rivalry.

Practically all British aerodromes have their football and cricket fields, kept in first-class condition by the industry of officers and men in their spare time. The Americans have added baseball fields, and spirited contests between squadrons take place frequently, together with occasional more pretentious contests between the local squadrons and visitors from camps a few miles distant.

During the fine English summer tennis is a great game at the aerodromes, played both on hard and grass courts. The English are taking up baseball gradually, but it will be a long time before they are proficient enough to compete with the Americans and Canadians.

Field sports offer the best opportunities for international rivalry.

When outdoor games are impossible owing to the weather, there are the varied diversions of the mess to fall back upon. Playing cards and billiards are popular, and ping-pong has been revived. There is always a gramophone with a plentiful store of records. No mess is complete without a piano, and many pleasant evenings are spent around it. Concerts are given periodically, and invitations to these concerts are usually extended to the men of nearby squadrons.

Youngsters to Exhibit pigs, Poultry, And Canned Fruits

Upward of 50 members of boys' and girls' pig, poultry, and food clubs conducted by the Ohio State University are expecting to be present at the state fair to conduct demonstrations and to compete for prizes. They will bring their pigs, poultry, and 2000 jars of canned fruits and vegetables. Individual and club exhibits will be made. Two special tests will be required for the exhibition.

The pig club teams will give demonstrations from 10 to 3 o'clock each day. Each member will have the opportunity of exhibiting one pig.

The poultry club teams will demonstrate feeding for fattening, killing and picking, judging of eggs, and judging utility stock. Each poultry club member in attendance may exhibit a trio of birds, consisting of one cockerel and two pullets.

The exhibit of each food club will consist of 10 parts of fruit and 10 jars of vegetables. Each individual food exhibit will consist of at least three jars of fruits and three jar of vegetables.

Demonstrations in canning according to the one-period cold-pack method will be conducted by four teams daily. Two members of each team will be engaged in the canning operations and the remaining members will explain the work.

WILD DUCKS ARE AHEAD OF TIME

(Associated Press Correspondence) Dawson, Yukon Territory, August 15.—Fully two months ahead of their usual time for migration, vast flocks of wild ducks are passing southward over Dawson. At times the Yukon River here is black with the birds.

Forest fires north toward the Arctic Circle or some strange action of nature, it is believed, is probably responsible for the early flight. Many of the ducklings are hardly able to fly.

SIGHT SEEING TRIPS ON FOOT IN BRITAIN

(Associated Press Correspondence) With the American Army, in England, Aug. 17.—American officers stationed temporarily in England must make most of their sightseeing trips beyond the lines of their camp on foot.

The temptation of officers and men to visit historic and interesting places near the camps is great, but the scarcity of motor equipment and the restrictions regarding railway travel make short jaunts impossible. American soldiers of the provost guard are at every railway station where there is a camp, with instructions to ask every soldier whether he be commissioned or not, if he has the necessary permission to travel.

OHIO DEMOCRATS MEET NEXT WEEK

(American Press)

Columbus, Aug. 21.—A short platform, with little mention of state affairs, holding that they are overshadowed by national problems, is planned by leaders for the Democratic state convention which meets here next week. There will be no more politics than the law requires to make it a party platform convention.

The central committee probably will not meet until the morning of Thursday, Aug. 29, when the convention is held in the afternoon, probably at the Southern hotel.

The following appears to be the lineup for the convention and state campaign: Former Governor Campbell, temporary convention chairman and keynote speaker; Senator Pomerene, permanent convention chairman, representing the national administration; Judge S. M. Douglass, Mansfield, chairman of the state central committee; Judge Patrick A. Berry, Mt. Vernon, chairman of the state executive committee and campaign manager.

Campbell and Pomerene may be the only speakers. Campbell, a civil war veteran, likely will talk on the war situation and the part the state has and will be expected to play in supporting the nation. Pomerene will be looked upon as spokesman for the national administration. He is expected to tell of accomplishments in the war and probably will voice an endorsement of the administration of Governor Cox.

Party leaders profess ignorance as to what attitude the convention will take with reference to prohibition, which the Republicans are expected to endorse in their platform. Some feel that the convention ought to keep hands off, leaving it to the gov.

error to indorse prohibition if he cares to do so.

Judge Douglass so far is the only man mentioned for successor to W. W. Durbin, Kenton, for years chairman of the central committee. If Judge Berry assumes the executive chairmanship he will have to resign as commissioner of securities. If this develops, he may be succeeded by Thomas H. Moore, Ashland, now deputy commissioner.

COLUMBUS STREET RAILWAY COMPANY FORFEITS FRANCHISE

(American Press)

Columbus, Aug. 21.—The new 5-cent cash fare, with 1 cent added for transfer, is now in effect in Columbus. How long it will continue depends primarily upon Judge John E. Sater of the United States district court.

A subject of active dispute, particularly since last February, when the Columbus Railway, Power and Light company asked city council for a six for a quarter rate instead of eight for a quarter, as provided in its franchise, the issue was put up to the courts, where it may pend for months or years.

The company forfeited its franchises—the so-called blanket and Central market line acts—and is operating without a franchise, except on a group of streets in which it claims perpetual rights. It is operating only by sufferance on all streets where perpetual rights are not asserted. It formally notified the city it would continue so to operate until ordered by the municipality to stop. The perpetual rights claimed are only for certain stretches of track. It would not be practical to operate these stretches alone nor to operate the general system without the stretches in which perpetual rights are alleged to exist.

Supposedly in effect at 4 o'clock this morning, the big street car change really became effective about 7 o'clock last evening, for conductors were not given tickets after that hour. Those patrons without tickets put up 5-cent cash fares with many protests. Some refused to pay. These were not ejected.

The company filed suit in United States court to enjoin the city from compelling it to live up to terms of its franchise. It alleges the latter is confiscatory in character and that revenue under franchise fares is not sufficient to pay interest on bonded indebtedness.

WATER SUPPLY AGAIN VERY LOW ALL MUST SAVE

Announcement Made That Altho 900,000 to 1,000,000 Feet of Water Is Pumped Daily, Supply Is Dwindling and Citizens Generally Must Economize.

Washington is face to face with a water famine unless every citizen exercises economy in the use of water.

This is indicated by conditions during the past few days and announcement Wednesday morning that the pumping station has been unable to keep an abundance of water, regardless of the fact that between 900,000 and 1,000,000 gallons is being pumped every 24 hours.

At six o'clock Tuesday evening there was only 20 feet of water in the standpipe, and by early Wednesday morning this had been raised to 50 feet, with every indication that it would be pulled down even lower than ever by nightfall.

Long ago the water in the creek ceased to pour over the dam erected to meet just such an emergency, and the drain has been so great that some of the wells are said to be producing only a fraction of their normal supply, and there is real reason why every effort should be made to save every gallon of water possible.

Flushing of the streets has been suspended until there is relief, and it is expected that no one use water for street sprinkling or for lawns until the supply is more abundant.

For days the pressure has been growing weaker as the continued dry weather reduced the supply and at the same time increased the demands upon the supply.

Don't waste water; Make every effort to save it.

HUN KULTUR

(Associated Press Correspondence)
London, August 19.—Nine sailors, four of whom were dying of wounds, left by a German submarine commander to perish on a ramshackle raft in the North Sea where eight of them died is the story of Hun barbarity told by Haakon Ohlson, the sole survivor of the Norwegian bark Eglinton, now recovering in a British naval hospital. When near death, Ohlson was rescued by a British motor boat patrolling in Helgoland light.

The Eglinton was carrying coal to Norway when attacked by the submarine firing shrapnel. The captain's right arm was shattered, the steward was badly wounded in the leg, a seaman was shot through the body and the second mate's arm was torn by splinters.

The ship filled rapidly but the crew put out a raft made of five planks and supported by barrels. A barrel of water and a case of biscuits were placed on the raft. The submarine came up, fired into the sinking bark and passed within twenty feet of the unfortunates as it circled about the raft.

"Not a word did the Huns say to us," said Ohlson, "although they could see our wounded and the plight we were in. There was a stiff breeze blowing and I expected the raft to break up. The submarine steamed away."

JEW IN COMMAND OF AUSTRALIANS

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Melbourne, Australia, August 5.—Lieutenant-General Sir John Monash, who now commands the Australian Army Corps—the Anzacs fighting in France—is a Jew. He is the most representative of a number of Australian Jews who have enlisted. In him, too, the Australian Army Corps has an Australian commander. He recently succeeded Lieutenant-General Sir William R. Birdwood, who is an English officer and a professional soldier. Sir John Monash is a citizen soldier.

Fifty-three years old and a resident of Melbourne, General Monash is a graduate in law and in civil engineering of the University of Melbourne, and a member of the University Council. He entered Melbourne University from the Scotch College here. He was a brilliant student. When he had left the institution he took up civil engineering. He was always actively interested in things military, but it is on record that not long before the war when he was consulted about a boy who longed for a cadetship at Duntroon (the Australian "West Point") he said:

"If the boy has any aptitudes with which he can enrich and widen his mind don't let him live his life as a professional soldier through times of peace. There is nothing so narrow, nothing more deadening than the walls of administrative routine, text-book and regulation by which he will be surrounded. Let him find his great life interest in whatever he is fitted to practice and to study. If the days of fighting should come he will be at his best in what he is best suited to accomplish."

When the war broke out Monash was a colonel of militia in his native state, Victoria. Also, he was in command of the Australian Intelligence Corps, composed of citizen officers. The formation of the three first expeditionary brigades found him an applicant for command, but others were given service before he was selected.

For a short time he filled the office of Censor-in-chief. Then, a fresh brigade being required for Gallipoli, he obtained the command of it. "Monash Gully" on the tragic peninsula commemorates the fact that he and his brigade did yeoman service there. In France, because of his reputation gained by his organization of the Third Australian Division, he has been regarded in many quarters as the Commonwealth's greatest soldier.

COLONEL RIVERS NOW IN CHARGE

(American Press)

Camp Sherman, O., Aug. 21.—Colonel T. R. Rivers, commander of the 158th depot brigade, assumed the duties of camp commandant at noon today. Captain A. M. Besnah has been promoted to major and made camp quartermaster, succeeding Major G. Garcia, now in France. Captain Harry Davis, camp adjutant, has been made a major and assigned to the adjutant general's office in Washington.

The body of Private Robert E. Morris, Lafayette Ind., was found dead along the railroad tracks near the base hospital. An empty vial, which had contained poison, lay beside his body, indicating he had committed suicide.

Entente Troops Retire.

Moscow, Aug. 21.—It is officially reported from Volozda that the entente allied troops in the Archangel sector of northwestern Russia have withdrawn outside the range of the Bolshevik artillery. Soviet troops are reported to have blown up the Baikal tunnel of the trans-Siberian railway.

USE AMERICA TO SHAME THE IRISH INTO THE SERVICE

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Dublin, August 19.—America's participation in the war is the trump card used by the Irish Recruiting Council formed to put into effect the government's offer to accept 50,000 voluntary recruits from Ireland in place of three or four times that number of conscripts.

They are publishing widely the declarations of American Cardinals, Archbishops and Bishops and evidence of cordial participation in the war by Irish Catholic Americans. They point out that the war is as much America's and France's as it is England's and urge Irishmen to take a fair share in it.

So far, they seem to have made only a slight impression. Nationalists declare that if Ireland is to take an active part in the war it must first have home rule.

The Ulster party is willing to accept conscription.

According to the latest announcement of the Government policy the result may be three months hence, the forcible application of conscription everywhere in Ireland outside Northeast Ulster. It has been decided to divide Ireland into ten areas and to apportion to each the share of the fifty thousand recruits it ought to furnish. Any area which furnishes its quota will be held to have satisfied the claim upon it, and will be thenceforth free from the application of conscription. It is regarded as certain that Belfast and the Northeast area will readily provide its share of the volunteer recruits, and doubted whether any other part of Ireland will do so.

The result would be that the only part of Ireland which now declares its willingness to accept conscription would be the only part free from it. The rest of Ireland would be a chaos of violent opposition and resistance.

ORDER YOUR FERTILIZERS NOW

The Office of Information, United States Department of Agriculture, has just issued the following announcement:

"Farmers are urged by the United States Department of Agriculture to place orders at once for fertilizer needed for fall wheat. It is very important, according to W. W. Mein, Assistant of the Secretary of Agriculture in charge of the licensing of fertilizer concerns under the Food Control Act, that dealers and manufacturers know farmers' needs as soon as possible, so that orders can be combined and car space used to the best advantage. Transportation difficulties require that freight cars be loaded to their rated capacity. Delay in ordering, it is said, may result in a repetition of last spring's experience when many farmers failed to receive their mixed fertilizer and acid phosphate until after planting time."

Orders can be filled in the "ACORN" or other leading brands of Williams & Clark's Fertilizers and delivered at your nearest station if you

HUGH HILDEBRANT TELLS OF WOUNDS AND HOSPITAL LIFE

British Doctor Killed by the Same
Burst of Shells That Mangled
Ear of Dr. Hildebrant—Yanks
Don't Like Two Meals and French Hospitals.

Writing to his brother, Dr. Paul Hildebrant, in this city, Lieutenant Hugh Hildebrant, who had one ear mangled and was otherwise injured by a German shell while on duty on the battle front in France, tells of his injuries and life in a French hospital.

The letter follows:
"France, July 24.
"An enclosing a clipping from 'The Mail' of yesterday and I can personally vouch for the truth of the statements made.
"I was wounded on the morning of the second day. I saw a German plane circle overhead and then move away and a minute later the shells began to arrive; about one each thirty seconds. I hurried to get through the area, jumping into a shell hole everytime I heard one coming, and when I awoke after the ninth or tenth I was covered with blood, my right ear badly torn, deaf therein, very dizzy and weak. I staggered out, and as the shells had stopped coming, put on a bandage and managed to get out. I think my ear drum is gone but have so much bandaging it is difficult to say.
"Am anxious to be evacuated from this French Hospital to an American base hospital, and have an American ear man look me over—also to get American amusement and food. My first suit of clothes is in ruins, my other back toward the front, safe I hope. Lost my good raincoat and toilet articles, however, so am at the mercy of the French barkers—what dull razors they do use!
"There are three other American Lieutenants (Infantry) here with me. Doctors do not rank high in their opinion, however. Oh, yes, I forgot to say that the other doctor I was with was killed by a shell, so our battalion lost both medical officers (this doctor has been here for three years, coming over with a British unit early in the war).
"Paris, July 29th.
"The American enlisted men in this hospital have been making trouble—they have no tobacco and don't like the French meals (two per day). So I suggested to the Surgeon in charge that I go to Paris and bring the matter to the attention of the American Red Cross and Y. M. C. A., since this hospital has been so recently established it has not yet been put down for American supplies, and he furnished me with a 'permission' and letter to the proper authority, by whom I was again referred to the Chief Surgeon of the Red Cross, who immediately indorsed the application for splints, anesthetic outfit, tobacco, etc. I visited my trunk at the American Express Co., filled my suitcase with twenty pounds of chocolate, shaving soap, etc., and then bought a new Gillette, and an 'issue' rain coat at the U. S. Commissary to replace the one lost at the front. I hope to locate my other uniform some day when I can discard this one I am now wearing.
"I leave here tomorrow for the hospital at 12:35 with suitcase, tobacco, etc. Meet many Michigan men here at the University Union—a fine assembling place.
"LIEUT. HUGH R. HILDEBRANT,
M. R. C., First Division, 16 Infantry,
A. E. F., France.
The newspaper clipping is:
"A certain American unit was in the fighting region south of Soissons and tells a strange story of its adventures.

The men arrived over roads congested with transport and mud, without machine guns, five minutes before time for the attack. But armed only with rifle and bayonet, they attacked and saw the Germans give way before them. The first day they made excellent progress but were without food or water. American resourcefulness, however, came to the rescue. Machine guns were brought up, ammunition obtained, and the water difficulty overcome by sending the men canned tomatoes, the juice of which served to quench their thirst.

REVISED PROHIB AMENDMENTS

(American Press)
Washington, Aug. 21.—A three months' reprieve for the drink family has been gained, regardless of what action the senate takes on the "bone dry" amendment. Under the original amendment the sale of all liquor would have ceased Jan. 1. A new amendment postpones the day until April 1, with a similar dispensation for the manufacture of beer and wine, which was to cease Nov. 1. No action can be taken until the senate reconvenes. There is likely to be considerable discussion and it may be well in September before final action is taken. One of the dry leaders predicted a majority of 18 when the vote is taken.
